Dear customer,

The story of Liberty International began in 1991 when Mr. Mario Enzesberger (native Austrian), globetrotter and businessman, looking back to a personal career of more than 20 years in the travel industry, decided to create his own company.

With his vision to become literally world-wide represented and to become the world-leading network of DMCs, each with its personal touch, first office was opened in Prague (Czech Republic). Liberty International today represents a colorful crowd coming from many different backgrounds with more than 700 professionals in nearly 60 offices. Within 25 years Liberty expanded to 50 countries on 5 continents. The business concept of Liberty is “Think global, act local” and use the synergies and assets of a global network without losing the personal touch of each individual environment.

By entering new markets as well as new lines of business Liberty International has managed to gain a sizable competitive advantage over its competitors manifested in an unprecedented network of offices virtually in every part of the world.

Liberty Adriatic was established in 2003 in Ljubljana, Slovenia. In 2012 we have added to our portfolio a branch office in Belgrade, Serbia in 2015 a branch office in Dubrovnik, Croatia and in 2016 a branch office in Zagreb, Croatia.

Region
The country of Slovenia lies in the heart of the enlarged Europe. It has a border with Italy, Austria, Hungary and Croatia. The capital Ljubljana is a modern, fresh, young, creative and surprising city.

Slovenia, a green and diverse country between the Alps and the Mediterranean, boasts all the beauties of the Old World. When you want to experience Europe in one stroke, come to Slovenia. In just 20,273 square kilometers there are snow-covered mountains, a sea coast bathing in the Mediterranean sun, beautiful karst caves and thermal springs, narrow white-water canyons and wide slow moving rivers, high mountain lakes and lakes that disappear mysteriously underground at the start of summer, ancient villages and medieval cities, the antique castles, countless vineyards with top quality wines, and the only primeval forest in Europe.

Here in this small and easily covered area, where hundreds of birds migrating south make a briefly stop and where dozens of unique indigenous plants find their home, more diverse experiences await you all year round than can be found anywhere else.
Croatia

From the coastal to the continental parts, Croatia's rich cultural heritage, combined with its magnificent natural beauties, make it the perfect place to spend your vacation at.

The capital of Croatia is Zagreb, a charming medieval city of exceptional beauty known for its spirit and architecture, with a population of approximately 1 million.

The uniqueness of Croatia lies in its sea. With its 1,246 islands and islets, it is the most diverse coast on the Mediterranean.

There are also seven exceptional national parks in Croatia, three being in the mountainous regions (Risnjak, Paklenica and Plitvicka Jezera), and four in the coastal regions (Kornati, Brijuni, Krka and Mljet).

Croatia is also home to the Old City of Dubrovnik, Diocletian's Palace in Split, Euphrasies Basilica in Porec, and more. Croatia boasts the largest number of developed settlements in southeast Europe, in addition, many of which date back to Roman and medieval times. Rarely can you find so many examples of cultural and historical significance from different periods in such a small region.
Bosnia and Herzegovina is one of the last undiscovered regions of the southern area of the Alps, with vast tracks of wild and untouched nature attracting adventurers and nature lovers.

According to an estimation of the World Tourism Organization, Bosnia and Herzegovina will have the third highest tourism growth rate in the world between 1995 and 2020.

Most notable among its charms is its lush, mountainous landscape, best seen from the vantage point of one of the national parks. The central Dinaric Alps, containing both Mediterranean & Alpine climates, are favored by hikers & walkers, containing both Mediterranean & Alpine climates. White-water rafting with 3 rivers (including the deepest river canyon in Europe, Tara River) is something akin to a national pastime. Bosnia has also become an increasingly popular skiing and ecotourism destination.

For some, the country remains synonymous with the Yugoslav wars that ravaged the Balkan region in the 1990s; it still bears their legacy, having a fractured infrastructure and a countryside.
Montenegro

Montenegro is the smallest of ex-Yugoslav republics. It offers wide range of investment possibilities and great geographic diversities which make this country worth visiting and exploring.

293 km of coast with its beautiful beaches is a complete contrast to the lakes, canyons, rivers and high mountains of inner Montenegro.

It is unique in many ways. It is extremely wild and beautiful. It has it all, small medieval cities on the coast, wild mountains, the biggest lake on the Balkan, the longest and the deepest canyon in Europe, Mediterranean climate and the most beautiful fjord in the Mediterranean. It has wide range of hotels on the coast and in land and venues that can host up to 1000 participants.

Different cultures have left their traces here. Today in Montenegro one can feel the influence of Venetian, Roman, Byzantine, French and Turkish culture. Moreover, all of that could be experienced in a relatively small distance.
A great variety of beautiful scenery and cultural and historical monuments, curative spas, hunting grounds and fishing areas give the basis for Serbia's tourism. Serbia has connected West with East for centuries – a land in which civilizations, cultures, faiths, climates and landscapes meet and mingle.

It is located in the centre of the Balkan Peninsula, in southeastern Europe. The northern portion belongs to central Europe, but in terms of geography and climate it is also partly a Mediterranean country. Serbia is landlocked but as a Danube country (it's longest river) it is connected to distant seas and oceans. Serbia is a crossroad of Europe and a geopolitically important territory. The international roads and railway lines, which run through the country's river valleys, form the shortest link between Western Europe and the Middle East.

The cultural and historical heritage of Serbia begins with prehistoric archaeological sites and its legacy from classical antiquity. Perhaps its greatest riches, though, are in the many mediaeval Serbian churches and monasteries, some of which are included on the UNESCO World Heritage list.
Landlocked in the heart of the Balkans, The Republic of Macedonia is one of Europe's youngest, smallest countries, but is simultaneously one of its oldest nations. Mountainous Macedonia still has an air of mystery. Simultaneously ancient and brand new, it's struggling to find its place in the post communist world. Black-clad Orthodox monks are just as much a part of this renewal as the hordes of teenagers, bedecked in the latest Italian fashions, sipping coffee in the stylish bars of the capital.

For outdoors types Macedonia is a paradise. Its extensive wilderness allows ample opportunities for hikers, mountain climbers and skiers. Meanwhile, ancient ruins and monasteries will fascinate anyone with even a smidgen of interest in history. In short, for a little place it's crammed with something for just about everyone.

Quite apart from Macedonia's spectacular peaks, lakes and rivers, it's the hospitality of the people of this most southern of Slavic nations that will make your visit truly memorable.
On the Adriatic and Ionian, in the heart of the Mediterranean, Albania is fast becoming one of the world's most interesting getaways. Still relatively unspoiled by globalization, tourists will notice an inspiring mixture of civilizations and cultures - making this European country truly unique.

Home of Mother Theresa, Albania today offers not only beach and mountain holidays, a vibrant city life and a relaxing outdoor cafe culture, but also something increasingly rare in Europe these days, a glance into a culture that is all its own. Raised on a diet of separation, Albania is distinctly Albanian.

Albania is also a warm and sincerely hospitable country – with enough rough edges to keep it interesting.
